Commemorating our foundation as a Guild in 1975 with Reginald Bowden as our first Master and the granting of Royal Charter in 2010, the Bowden Charter Dinner is the opportunity for Marketors with their guests to celebrate both landmarks.

This year we are fortunate to be one of the very first Livery Companies to dine at the recently refurbished Butchers' Hall.

The Hall has seen a total refurbishment lasting nearly five years and whilst retaining some of its original character, the hall has taken on a new lease of life.

In addition to this, we are fortunate to have Sir Lloyd Dorfman CBE, speaking to us.

Sir Lloyd is an entrepreneur and philanthropist. He is the Founder of the Travellex Group, the world's largest retailer of foreign exchange, which he started in 1976 from one small shop in central London, selling the business in 2015.

He has a considerable portfolio of other varied business interests, including the recently formed entertainment marketing agency Think Jam. He is also a Shareholder and Board Director of the London Theatre Company.

In the charity sector, he has been Chairman of Prince's Trust International since December 2015. He was also Chairman of the Prince's Trust from 2015 to 2018, having joined the charity's Council in 2007. In addition, he is Deputy Chairman of the Community Security Trust and a Trustee of the Royal Opera House, of the Royal Academy Trust, of BAFTA and of JW3.

He is the Honorary Colonel of the Third Battalion of the Princess of Wales Royal Regiment. He is also a Freeman of the City of London and a member of the Mercers' Company, an Honorary Fellow of St Peter's College, Oxford, and an Honorary Bencher of Lincoln's Inn.

We shall be enjoying fine dining and wines supplied by the hall's caterers, Life's Kitchen, with piano accompaniment throughout the evening.

I very much hope that Carol and I will be welcoming you and your guests to what promises to be a wonderful evening in a revitalised venue we have not been to for many years.
